HOW IT WORKS

We don't broadcast live, we meticulously record sets in our studio, collaborating closely with artists to capture their vision authentically. These sets are then scheduled for release on a monthly basis, with staggered publication across our social media platforms and website. You can find each set showcased on our website in the radio section at www.unolab.uno/fm, accompanied by artist profiles and additional contents.

UK Bass Techno

Over the last year DJ ADHD has carved a unique sound scattered with 909s and 808s that blur the lines of techno and UK bass music. Following his debut release 'Vortex' and more recently 'Rips', a club weapon created alongside Nikki Nair (both released on Pretty Weird), his release schedule for 2022 is filling up with solo releases and projects with Chloé Robinson, Nikki Nair and Villager, making sure that his club focused sound is heard on dancefloors around the world.
